People have to be held accountable for the terrible things that they put on other people. And not hide behind the fact that they're a woman or that they're gay. Don't insult other women. Women are not victims we're not going to whine and cry because we're stronger than that and we have come a long way, but people like Amber Heard are pulling us back after years of progress for women. I hope the general population understand that we aren't a bunch of Amber heard's we are so much better than that.

As a recovering victor of sexual, physical and emotional abuse, I am appalled that Amber Heard has continued to be rewarded, despite her vindictive, manipulative, narcissistic behavior. Mr. Depp was nearly destroyed by her lies. He lost multiple contracts and has had to fight for his character.

Because of woman like her, many innocent victims go unheard, and have to be victimized even more by investigators. Some never find the justice they deserve. #justiceforjohnnydepp #boycottaquaman2 #justiceforabusedmen

Je signe car Amber Heard veut volontairement détruire Johnny Depp avec tous ses mensonges. Elle est clairement l'abuseuse et utilise depuis des années les médias pour mentir, se faire passer pour une victime quand en fait elle est l'abuseuse. Johnny a déjà perdu 2 rôles majeurs à cause de ses mensonges... tout ça est déjà allé trop loin... elle mérite de payer pour tout ce qu'elle a fait et être bannie d'Hollywood. Ce qui ne serait pas une grosse perte! Elle ne sera pas connue pour son talent (qui est absent!!) Mais pour être une narcissique-menteuse- abuseuse et manipulatrice.

Amber Heard was secretly recording fights she instigated with Johnny. Only to save them all to use in court against him. Her very sad attempt at making herself look like a victim. This premeditated act of deceit, not only proves how she's manipulating the court, but that this has been a hidden agenda for her for quite some time, which in turn states, she NEVER loved Johnny Depp, she's been using him from the beginning. If anyone in Hollywood should be requested to leave, it should be her. Place discard this greedy, manipulative, talentless whore.

Amber Heard has been exposed as a domestic abuser by Johnny Depp. In his $50 million lawsuit, Johnny Depp describes many incidents of domestic abuse that he suffered at the hands of his (then) wife Amber Heard, including one incident where she punched him twice in the face and another where she shattered his finger with a vodka bottle, and his finger had to be surgically reattached. He will bear the scar from that for the rest of his life.

Also, Amber Heard was arrested in 2009 for abusing a former domestic partner, Tasya Van Ree, demonstrating a repeated pattern of abuse by Amber Heard.

Since Heard's divorce from Johnny Depp, she has systematically crusaded to ruin Depp in Hollywood, repeating multiple accounts of fake incidents in which she had actually abused Johnny Depp, but lied and created false accounts of him being the abuser. About the incident during which she shattered the bones in Johnny Depp's finger and nearly severed it, causing Depp to require surgery to reattach and repair it, Heard presented a false story claiming that he cut off his finger himself, dipped it in paint and scrawled obscenities all over the walls.

Likewise, Heard recounts fabricated incidents of Johnny Depp hitting her in the face when she had, in fact, punched him. Though staff and neighbors in the building where she lived reported seeing no marks on her face in the hours and days after she says Johnny Depp hit her, yet she appeared in court six (6) days later with bruises on her face, asking for a temporary restraining order, which was granted. Photos of Heard from the very next day show her full face, without makeup, and not a single bruise.

As Amber Heard is a known and proven domestic abuser, Warner Brothers and DC Entertainment should and must remove Heard from their Aquaman 2 film project. They must not ignore the suffering of Heard's victims, and must not glamorize a domestic abuser.

Men are victims of domestic abuse, just like women. This must be recognized, and action must be taken to prevent a known abuser from being celebrated within the entertainment industry.

Do the right thing. Remove Amber Heard from Aquaman 2.

I am tired of this double standard. I am tired of men being treated as guilty until proven innocent based on an accusation alone. Despite all evidence to the contrary, men are still treated as guilty even after being proven innocent, while false accusers are left with no repercussions for maliciously falsifying statements to hurt the accused's career and reputation. Amber Heard has just watered down and exploited a movement that was supposed to help actual victims of domestic abuse and sexual harassment. She is a pathological liar and manipulator. Why should Amber Heard keep her major role in Aquaman after falsely accusing Johny Depp of abusing her, making him lose his role in the upcoming Fantastic Beasts. In fact she is the one, that was abusive in her previous relationships, if she was a man she would have been removed at once, the same as Kevin Spacey after being accused od sexual harrasment, which then was proved to be false as well.

I'm signing because Amber heard is trash and men and women need to be treated equally if Johnny Depp one of the most well respected brilliant actors is actually stepped down then this nobody ever heard definitely needs to be punished as well she is not innocent just cuz she's a woman is not justify anything. Fire her ass because I definitely will not be watching any movie she is cast in. What's more important losing an actress or losing millions of dollars. The decision is pretty simple to me

Mr. Depp has been innocent all along yet had to go through hell, humiliation and hatred of the masses even without any significant proof or evidence that he was the abuser. He didn't deserve any of it and it's about time Amber Heard goes through the same and gets what she deserves. You know, fair, equal treatment and all. A manipulative liar and gold digger like her doesn't get to be in a spotlight and to be a star after she intentionally trashed his name and reputation. Unfortunately for herself, she chose to mess with a wrong man - a talented genius like Mr. Depp has billion of fans and admirers all over the world that believed him from the very beginning and they stand true and strong in his fight against his perpetrator. I'm so glad that she didn't get away with it and the truth surfaced. #Ibelievehim , #IstandwithJohnnyDepp , #JohhnyDeppisASurvivor, #AmberHeardisAnAbuser

So now, I believe it's time we demand justice for Johhny Depp! He lost his role as Jack Sparrow because of Amber Heard's false accusations of domestic abuse and lies. Please, follow the link below to sign the petition to keep him in POTC franchise. Together, we are strong and powerful and can change the course of events. Disney will have to hear us and consider the fans wish . They are making movies for us, the audience, and they must consider what we want. After all, Mr. Depp is a victim here and hasn't done anything wrong to lose one of his most epic roles. Besides, POTC movies are not POTC without him. Just waste of film and time. Please, sign, share and support to make Heard really mad and not let her destroy his career he's been building all his life with hard work, unlike her. #JackSparrowforever #JohnnyDeppisJackSparrow

Johnny Depp's ex wife, Amber Heard, lied on the witness stand during their divorce proceedings. This is confirmed by tape recordings that both Depp and Heard made of each other discussing their problems while they were trying to mend their marriage. Also, a man does NOT just suddenly become an abuser of women in his 50's. Johnny Depp's former partner of 14 years (and mother of his two children) has spoken out stating that Johnny was never abusive to her in any way. Other women that Johnny had been in long term relationships with have also denied that he was abusive to them in any way.

Listened to the recordings of Amber heard's abuse towards Johnny despicable. I've heard the same words from my abuser "I was hitting you not punching you." she assaulted him when all he was trying to do was find a safe place in the bathroom to hide from the anger and daily abuse likely. Women it's never okay to hit a man. just like men should never hit a woman. you should never hit anyone except to protect yourself from the harm you are receiving from some one and have no other choice. being a survivor of abuse seeing the exact same behaviors in the recordings from amber as my abuser it's clear she abused johnny. she messed up by divorcing johnny because she sabotaged her own cycle of abuse and manipulation. she did him a favor and turned to fictitious claims of abuse when her act backfired. it's textbook abuse from a female perpetrator. If johnny did hit her it was likely in self defense from one of her "hitting" sprees. There is nothing more terrifying then seeing the deranged look on the face of some on you love as they "hit" you as hard as they can pretending they are "play fighting" there is no difference between "hitting" and punching. And there is no weaker feeling then telling some one to stop hitting you and they won't even if you are stronger and able to get a hold of their hands and pin them down so they can't hit you. they will just wait and hit you again. No matter how many times you tell them to stop. You can hear the insecurities that are the center of amber's abuse. She's afraid that if she stops abusing him that johnny will split and leave her. So she stages anger fits and pushes him to try and resolve the situation of her anger to keep him in this cycle of dealing with her shit so he can't think of anything else. it's very evident that no other ex of his would expect him abusing some one and that they never received any abuse while with him that any physical abuse that johnny depp "did" was likely self defense from physical abuse from Amber. she is textbook abuser. And johnny reacts reacts to the violence is textbook male victim. he acknowledges that injury he caused her was wrong in the recording and when he tries to open her eyes up to the abuse she freaks out and runs takes off. knowing she got his attention that effectively she won and achieved her goal. subconsciously that is what she did. no accountability for hurting depp. you can't chase some one down when they are trying to get away force yourself on them and hit them and not be an abuser. If some one needs space give them space.

Any ways domestic violence happens to men so much but people rarely acknowledge it. empower men to get out of abusive relationships. Depp we are with you.

Johnny Depp is an example that people dont care that men are abused too. Johnny Depp has changed so many life from kid to adults threw his career. And this case may be a joke to some but to those of us who can know this is not right. Johnny Depp was accused by many reporters and his ex-wife Amber Heard claiming he was a wife beater. When we all know it was a lie that it was the other way around.

Johnny Depp was beat by pots and pan 24/7. It went so far as that he had to set up security cameras in his own home. His home was supposed to be his safe space but it wasnt. Johnny Depp deserves better then this he is not a wife beater but Amber Hear is a husband beater. And if the filmed evidence is enough for you how about the videos of her admitting to it. So yall can call him what yall want but he in innocent and those of us who care will sign this petition till he is hear.

I'm getting sick and tired of these feminazis abusing and ruining men's lives in Hollywood with allegations that do not have logical evidence. Now is the time that females actually have accountability for their actions instead of just running their mouths and acting with a victim complex. Hollywood and Disney are now having unprofessional behaviour and political correctness that are all plaguing the quality of potential films that make me refuse to buy them. All of these feminazis, snowflakes, and virtue signalling celebrities from the Disney company and the Hollywood industry are making me realise how the entertainment industry is being controlled by people who are pretentious idiots. Which is why I feel sorry for Johnny Depp when he has to deal with these feminazis, snowflakes, and virtue signalling idiots who aren't being accountable for their actions because this world has crazy fans who act crazy towards their celebrities instead of people acting like civilised adults that treat their celebrities like the flawed human beings that they really are. When there are crazy fans supporting celebrities blindly, this tells me that there are parents who probably aren't raising their children to behave like civilised adults. This tells me that society is doing something wrong. Johnny Depp is a flawed person who has feelings and thoughts. He has had his friends and ex say that he would not be an abusive person in a relationship despite what Amber Heard has said. From what I have witnessed, Amber Heard probably fabricated everything to make Johnny Depp seem like he was the abuser. Even though Johnny Depp says he knows how to lie, especially since he's an actor, I'm not convinced that Johnny Depp actually abused Amber Heard. There's absolutely no evidence that Johnny Depp really harmed Amber Heard, which is why there is no evidence that justifies Johnny Depp being fired from future Disney movies and future Hollywood movies. Virtue signalling idiots, feminazis, and snowflakes can support Amber Heard all they want, but they don't have logical evidence to justify making Johnny Depp lose his career in the Hollywood industry nor the Disney company. If allowing predators to abuse men because of some petty revenge game to fight against patriarchy is happening in the entertainment industry, then I'm done with Disney and Hollywood altogether because it's just showing me that Hollywood and Disney are not being controlled by professionals but petty drama queens that I don't want to waste my brain cells on.

Amber Heard cut Johnny Depp's finger, burned his cheek with a cigarette, took away his medicines, hit him with a door, hit him, kicked, spit, threw things at his head, made fun of him, insulted him, made him feel inferior and falsely accused him of everything.

Johnny Depp went through hell because of the lies that Amber Heard spread & even played the victim. It ruined his career & reputation. Truth is now prevailing by bunch of evidences that he provided. He deserve better, he deserve an apology, he deserve justice.

He lost his role as Jack Sparrow on Pirates of the Carribean because of Amber Heard accusing him of being an abusive partner. Imagine how hurt he is he loved that role so much.

Justice for Johnny! The poor guy's been through so much the last several years with all the crap Amber Heard put him through. And now all the evidence shows that SHE was the actual abuser and he was falsely accused! He's lost his reputation, his career, his money - and his finger, no less! Meanwhile she's gotten more famous, gotten bigger film roles, became a spokesperson for L'Oreal, and became a face in the MeToo Movement (the irony). This whole situation is a farce! If Johnny doesn't get the justice he deserves then I swear, all hope is lost for our society

Mary Carter from CA nan on 2020-04-25T01:25:33Z (0 likes):

Justice for Johnny. He's innocent and seeing the facts & evidence unfold. We're observing the pattern of a sick, vindictive, diabolical 'I'll poop-on-your-bed' sociopath: Amber Heard - is clearly the actual physical, emotional, verbal abuser, guilty of faking evidence (bruises), perpetrated a hoax not even that well mind you - weaponized her female-gender victimhood to gain fame, attention, sympathy, financial gain via movies, appearances, pats on the back by deluded people. Women who lie about men are the worst kind, b/c they easily can and do take complete advantage of laws that are there to protect actual victims of abuse; weaponize to destroy an ex &/or men in general whenever they feel like they need the upper hand, feel powerful, in control, or for some other self-righteous gain, seeking to sabotage, destroy, get revenge or just man-haters in general. This is becoming FAR TOO COMMON.

Doesn't even have to be an ex, some do it for political reasons or to someone they just don't like. I've seen women falsely accuse men, even entice them/bosses into affairs to use against them to get ahead, some even admit it. Let's not be stupid, women also know how to use and abuse men, with such ease & no consequence or repercussions, in fact other women often even encourage these demented behaviours these days. And who would believe the man over the woman!? Who would even dare! Doesn't Amber herself even say this to Johnny? - to not even try going to court or say she abused him - b/c she's a (meek, weak) slender woman.? By evidence text msgs with Johnny, her own parents know her well, are scared of her and of pissing her off. It is the cruelest for any person to be FALSELY accused. Not all men have the financial means to sue or even fight back. Liars, hoaxsters, who make false accusations truly diminish and anger real victims. I hope she goes to jail for making false accusations. Obviously she won't ever be punished for physical abuse perpetrated on her victims. #justiceforJohnny

You know that in our lives we meet good kind and loving people like Johnny Depp his daughter Lilly rose Depp who is so sweet and innocent and Venessa paradise who his kindness and love on her heart .. To the person who told Lilly rose Depp she should not be born (I usually do not say mean things to people) but I have to say this to that person today .. Just like her father who I've known in my heart like forever and her mother mother she is the best loving kind sweet and innocent child that could be ever born and graces this earth with her poise her beauty her kindness her love and strength and to the person who said that mean thing to Lilly rose Depp should look at her self and see that she has nothing to give to this world ans she is useless I this works .. As for Amber heard she could never touch Venessa paradise who have everything beautiful that she has not and she reminds me of my mother who is just like her not a nice person and the only bad thing that this most loving man Johnny Depp ever did wrong was hurt his wife and children a little with that no good heartless ugly witch of an who knows what Amber heard is .. I know my mother clawed abuse where they was no abuse only for she to gain sympathy when it is Amber heard who is the abusers .. In reality Amber not only hurt veanesaa paradise and Lilly rose Depp by dating and marrying Johnny Depp and then lying on him and hurting him him.. Amber heard also hurt the only person Johnny Depp who loved her and give a lot to her . Amber heard is ungrateful and this is not good for me to say but this world could do with less people like Amber heard and more people like Johnny Depp , Lilly rose Depp and Venessa paradise

It was all over and done, and people were speculating on who Amber and Johnny were dating. Everything was going on, no mention of the abuse. Oh, and what about that extra 7 million Amber was demanding Johnny send to the charities because he would get a deduction and supposedly would only have paid half the settlement?? Johnny signed the checks in the name of Amber Heard anyway, so that went away pretty fast. Thank goodness. Now? Harry Potter, a boy beaten by his aunt and uncle and messed around by Voldemort more than once...is used as an example of hypocrisy by BLIND FAITH in the words of someone who lies about abuse just to get back at Johnny for not being the "fantasy" she had as a teenager...and his money didn't hurt! But people need to let this shit go, and stop boycotting all Johnny's hard work, while calling him a "has been" or whatnot when his movies 'fail" because of these ridiculous boycotts.

What Amber Heard did was atrocious. She truly disgusts me, and she is a sick human being. Someone like this deserves to be behind bars, not continually being on the front page of a magazine. She took advantage of the #MeToo movement, and people like her give it a bad name when there are actual people that have participated in the movement who have been abused. The double standards are absolutely disgusting, and this shouldn't be a problem at the current age we are in. It is literally something you learn in Kindergarten, "treat someone the way you would want to be treated". This is so ridiculous...

Call-out/cancel-culture immediately saw Depp's career nearly destroyed. As it has been obvious for a long time now that JD was the victim of both physical and emotional abuse from Malignant Narcisist Amber Heard (who needs serious psychological help, assuming she is not beyond help), it is outrageous that L'Oreal has not dropped her. Or is "L'Oreal. Get the look of a Narcisistic Abuser!" the image they are trying to convey? If L'Oreal seriously wanted to show support for victims of abuse, both female OR male, they would immediately drop Heard. Abuse is abuse, and the terrible impact such abuse has on victims is far reaching and is not dependent on the sex of the abuser or the abuses. In this case, even worse as the abuser was almost successful in destroying her victim's career. Heard is a monster and a liar, and should be in prison rather than promoting L'Oreal

As an actual victim of dv, it hurts me deeply that Amber Heard maliciously lied (and continues to do so) about suffering abuse at Johnny Depp's hands. Because of women like her who fabricate tales of violent abuse, it makes it so those of us who have actually suffered through abuse worry that no one will believe us and unfortunately some victims are looked at as liars. Worse still, because of this, some victims lose their lives at the hands of their abusers. They DIE! What makes what Amber did all the worse on top of all of this, SHE was the abuser! L'Oreal should be ashamed and embarrassed that they continue to support Amber Heard given how her actions have made it harder and unsafe for actual dv victims to be believed, get help, and be protected. Since your company supports her, L'Oreal also impacts victims of violence, sexual assault, and abuse the same damaging way Amber Heard has and continues to. We expect more and given all the money we've spent on your products, I don't think it's too much to ask for you all to stand with us and against what Amber represents. She chose to do these things. Just as you chose to support her nonsense. Make the right choice ffs. Thank you.

Amber Heard is truly two-faced:
"Lovely on the outside, ugly on the inside."
"Her beauty is just skin-deep."

She has given herself and Loreal a "black eye".

Amber Heard has consistently and continually demonstrated, by her documented history of inflicting abuse on others while playing the martyred victim, that she is psychologically addicted to this predatory, destructive, manipulative, narcissistic, "spoiled brat/self-entitled" behavior.

It has become clearly evident that she seems to enjoy inflicting pain - psychological, physical, emotional.

In the true nature and spirit of an addict, she defers blame to others and refuses acknowledgement or responsibility for her own behavior.

Court-ordered psychiatric therapy, counseling treatment, mandatory community service at abused men/women's shelter AND an animal cruelty shelter AND a homeless shelter, a 12-step program, celibacy - what will it take to reach her?

Does she know, realize, recognize or have the willingness to discover if she has the capacity of humbleness/humility, empathy, sympathy, and selfless caring of others? Does she have the personal fortitude and willingness to make amends to her victims?

NO AMOUNT OF MAKEUP can disguise a person's ugly, cruel and hypocritical, narcissistic selfishness.

Loreal - please do not support her anymore, ever. I believe she is no longer worthy or deserving of any public status or public attention.

I strongly urge Loreal to permanently remove Amber Heard from all of their brands as soon as possible.

"Why I am boycotting L'Oreal/Paris"

L'Oreal/Paris makes tons of money from women.

The company is insulting our collective intelligence, by hailing Amber Heard as a role model for women.

Never mind that she put a cigarette out on Johnny Depp's face, she viciously verbally abused him, cut his finger off (when he plays guitar in a band), and then she lied about it, in order to manipulate a friend to get TMZ to falsely report that Johnny cut it off.

Due to the time it took to get divorced, her both tempestuous and contemptuous marriage to Depp lasted 14 months, during which time, she had secret affairs with at least three people that have been named in court documents.

Despite her abusing Depp, she lied about it and filed court papers, in which she falsely claimed that he abused her, knowing that said statements would be made public.

She wrote an editorial, and commented at women's events that she was a "abuse survivor," falsely intimating it was Depp that abused her.

She has carried on this malicious campaign of hate, knowing that Depp would lose his lucrative Pirates of the Caribbean role, as well as others, that supported Depp and his family members.

Not to mention the many others that worked with this film franchise.

It is difficult to pinpoint how many people she has hurt with her lies.

While pretending to be a "victim" of abuse, and pretendinf to represent representing abused women, she has continued to lie about Depp.

This hoax perpetrated by Ms. Heard has caused so much damage to the Me Too movement, and to real women around the world that actually have been abused.

In a further hoax, perpetrated by Amber Heard, with both public relations and financial help from L'Oreal/Paris, I am supposed to believe that Ms. Heard is a "role model" to me.

L'Oreal/Paris must really think the women who buy its products are stupid.

When I was 15, I could take three hits of L25, and have more sense than to believe a scam like this.

I could say volumes more about the matter than this, but Loreal/Paris has insulted women all over the world with this sociopathic advertising campaign.

I'm signing because Amber Heard or Amber "Turd" as she is more commonly known for these days, is a hack. She is a clear misrepresentation of actual female domestic violence victims and has abused that position for her personal gain. She is manipulative and will step at anyone just so she gets her way.

I am signing because I believe in equal rights among men and women, and that I say no to double standards. L'oreal is a home for beauty products and represented by beautiful women, but I think that they surely know that having an attractive face is not enough, and that the beauty inside should also be important. Now, having someone as Ms. Amber heard, whose true colors have already been exposed continue to represent L'oreal's brand would mean that L'oreal itself promotes and upholds the same ill nature as Ms. Heard's. And that regardless of all the evidences presented pointing out that Mr. Johnny Depp is the victim all along, and that L'oreal turning a blind eye on it might meant that they support any wrongdoings of any women just because they believe that justice is only meant for women.

She also tried to blackmail him in giving her 3 penthouses with all living expenses paid by him, his range rover, 50 000 a month for her living expenses and if he agreed she would not proceed with the abuse claim. Johnny Depp, a man I too am a victim of domestic violence, yes! Johnny Depp was mocked by Amber Heard with this saying. She admits to hitting him, throwing pots, pans, vases and even paint thinner at him. And she through bottles at him and at one time even severing his finger when she threw vodka bottles at him and put a cigarette on his cheek among other things yet that evidence was totally ignored by Judge Nicol. Also, people who actually people who saw what happened weren't believed while Nicol totally ignored their testimony over the word of Amber Heard when she clearly had no evidence of her own, just her word. She told five different stories before testifying in court all different from the testimony in court while Johnny Depp's story has never changed ever since the beginning. His evidence of abuse of her by him totally outweighs anything she says. He has corroboration she has no corroboration at all. Johnny Depp deserves justice because he told the truth based on evidence not just his word.

There is no Pirates of the Caribbean without Captain Jack Sparrow. Johnny Depp is the one who carried the franchise. Without him there is nothing. Also, that whole crapfest about Margot Robbie stating that PotC 6 would be all about politics and girl power is an instant "NO THANKS" from me. First off she's a mediocre actress at best who is best left in a supporting role; she just isn't main star material. Second I've had it with all the woke political nonsense and "white man bad".

So keep your 'girl power' political nonsense on Twitter as you won't get any money from me with such nonsense. I want to watch movies to escape from this crap; I don't watch movies to get it shoved down my throat even more.

So bring back Johnny Depp as he's the only one who can save your franchise. Amber Heard was the abuser in that relationship and we already have all the evidence. Yet she keeps getting jobs and just laughing in Johnny's face while he is dropped from everything... just because Disney is scared of a couple soyboys and some blue haired shemales on Twitter? Pathetic.

It is appalling that someone like Amber Heard is still "working the crowd" with her false accusations against Johnny Depp. She is self-serving and was using her relationship with Johnny Depp to advance her own agenda. This truth can be seen with great clarity, as we have born witness to her scheming ways. As far as I know, this is a country where men (and women) are innocent until proven guilty. There is absolutely no proof that any of Ambers allegations against Johnny Depp were true. The police have thoroughly investigated this matter and found that no crime has been committed. Johnny's ex's all came forward with their testimony as a testament to his character and integrity. Amber, in fact, used manipulative and dishonorable methods to put forward a story that is as full of holes as her own feeble mind. It is my greatest hope that we can, together, keep this unscrupulous person from becoming a part of this important platform. We simply don't have to "believe" every women who cries wolf, do we? I hope knot! Just the facts, please!

"Deeply embedded blood sucking tick" Lmfao! That was epic!

A blood-sucking tick lol... that's just how I would describe my incredibly jealous, cheating, narcissistic last girlfriend/ fiancé -- whom I made the huge mistake of bringing into my home. She did to me something very similar to what Amber Heard did to Johnny Depp. In some ways even worst, though... just without all the suing back n forth. In my case I had to take all the abuse and the cheating on her part for years; and then she added insult to injury by demonizing me even further in court after sticking me with a highly damaging restraining order when I couldn't take it any more and decided to pack her bags and remove her from my home. After that, she proceeded to vilify me with her incessant "abuse" rant at work and on social media. That was her vengeance for me breaking up with her and "kicking" her out. Oh, she made up so much sh*t! That's why I no longer believe everything that's made public in these so-called domestic violence cases. Yes, there are always some truths mixed in, but always sprinkled with plenty of atrocious lies to make things appear out of the ordinary and to render the man "abusive". Then there's the real truth that never comes out to the public... what truly happened. But the court never wants to hear that, oh no.... They are just focused on making the man appear "abusive" and deserving of punishment. Nothing but nonsense.

Anyway, yeah..., Amber Heard should get the boot for being an annoying crybaby and a truly abusive person (in many ways) and for her never-ending lies. And that dude.. whatever his name is... the dude that's been protecting and supporting her all this time, he too needs to go ASAP. No place for abusive people and ultra-feminist idiots in society. It's time for a change. All I know is that I won't be watching any of their productions any time soon if those two are in them or involved in any way.

I am signing because I support Johnny Depp. There is so much evidence available that proves Amber Heard had an agenda since day one with Johnny. To hook him, take advantage of her marriage status to him as a tool to advance her career and then destroy him personally and financially with pathological lies and faked pictures. The evidence is overwhelming, and there's so much more out there that hasn't been tapped yet. She emotionally and physically abused Johnny throughout their marriage, leaving him having to fight for his sanity and career. And to see Disney and Warner Brothers turn their back on a man that's made them millions hand over fist. While they side with an untalented, no body actress because she is a woman. Hollywood has know Johnny, his acting talent, box office appeal, and his personal character and work ethic. They know how highly respected he is professionally and personally. They turned their backs on him, not even listening to his side. Now they're all regretting their decisions because the truth has come out, and it's gonna cost them millions and the respect of the people. Johnny has been through enough pain. It's time he gets justice, and Amber gets a jail cell. So I will not watch Aquaman 2, along with about 200 friends and family. We boycott because our voices were not listened too regarding Ambers participation in the film. And myself and the same family and friends have stopped buying any products by L'Oréal and any of the companies that are affiliated with them. They all could have stepped up and fired her, yet even with all the proof of her deceptions and lies, they stay loyal. They've made a stupid and costly mistake over a pretty face with definite mental health and criminal issues.

Amber Heard is a disgusting deplorable psycho and should NOT be able to falsely spin a narrative that she is the "victim" and ruin a guy's career who has been beloved by public, peers, ex partners and fans since the 1980's. Fame whore and gold digger. Heard the audiotapes, she is legit crazy & not like anyone is perfect but Johnny Depp was the voice of reason and calm. She kept egging him on and he kept calm while she berated him for an hour on how terrible he is for walking away from her when she is violently fighting with him to escape her insanity.

Johnny Depp is one of the most amazing actors in our time! His private relationships shouldn't affect his career! If it is true, that he hit Amber Heard, we don't know what she did or said to trigger him to do it. Anyone can be triggered to hit, if the other person pisses them off enough or throws things at them, like she btw did at him! So don't judge if you don't know the full story. And while Amber Heard is shortwhile, Johnny is legendary!

Fools! Are you run by men or pussies? Scared of the screaming feminists? Completely out of touch with what the actual public thinks and you live in a Hollywood bubble, the public utilizes Twitter, Instagram and YouTube and the amount of content out there that supports Johnny Depp and is carefully and thoroughly explaining the evidence that contradicts Amber Heard's claim and proves her lies, and in her own voice everyone can listen to her shrill screams and threatening intimidation and admission of physical aggression against Johnny. Surely there are enough of you old crones at Warner and Disney that remember a time when journalists had to properly investigate and find evidence before printing an article. The word "alleged" seems to have lost importance and the mainstream media machine is hellbent on scandal. The Sun is tabloid garbage. Johnny Depp was not arrested, charged or convicted of domestic violence. So the term wifebeater was incorrect, not based in fact, not accompanied by the word "alleged" and based only on the word of a vengeful and malicious woman looking to gain media attention and sympathy. Look into her history, you'll find its not so nice. She is hated, Johnny is loved and you made a very impulsive and bad decision in asking Johnny Depp to resign from his role in Fantastic Beasts. Congratulations, you now have a turkey on your hands because you've just all lost public support and the only reason anyone would have gone to see Fantastic Beasts.

In the audio tapes that have surfaced you can here Amber Heard complain that he ALWAYS runs away from her and won't stay and fight. She does not sound like somebody in fear for their lives, or somebody controlled and threatened. It sounds like the complete opposite! She talks about it like it is a common thing for her to get physical with him. Then she taunts him for not letting her hit him! She also says she cannot promise SHE won't get physical again! Whether man or woman nobody deserves to be struck in a relationship, or belittled for trying to avoid conflict. As for his part it seems at most he likely had to push her off him to move past her to escape her attacks. This does not make him an abuser. If he is fleeing her he is not the abuser! She actually brags nobody will believe him! He has lost a lot because of her. Emotionally, and financially. Even now people still think he is to blame! Is it just because she is a woman? So what! It is shameful she gets a pass when he sure didn't and he is the victim. Also It is a disgrace that anybody would have her be a representative for victims. She seems beautiful on the outside but in reality her behavior is just ugly, she is a liar and a manipulator, she is an abuser.

Given that:

- 1) Suicide is a leading cause of death in men
- 2) Divorce is a leading cause of male suicide
- 3) Amber Heard just filed for divorce against Johnny Depp
- 4) Her petition for divorce was just filed days after the death of his mother, which is one of the times in a man's life when he will be at his lowest point and needs all the support that he can get
- 5) Through her action in filing for divorce, Amber has shown herself to be an absolutely contemptible human being completely devoid of any compassion for anyone other than herself

We, the undersigned, have chosen to stand in solidarity with Mr. Depp and swear for the rest of our lives to boycott anything and everything that has been in any way touched by Amber Heard including any and all media she is involved with, including, but not limited to, her movies, TV shows, music, books, blogs, etc., past, present and future, as well as any charities she is involved with now or in the future, regardless of our own personal feelings for said charities, so long as she is a spokesperson. Even if she changes her mind later on, perhaps because of this petition, we, the undersigned, will not.
